

2025 Cafayete Torrontes Salta Argentina

Cafayete Torrontés comes from Argentina's high-altitude Cafayate Valley in Salta, one of the country's most celebrated regions for the Torrontés grape. The combination of intense sunlight, cool nights, and elevated vineyards helps produce wines with striking aromatics, vibrant acidity, and exceptional freshness. The 2025 Cafayete Torrontés is intensely aromatic, offering notes of white flowers, citrus blossom, peach, apricot, and fresh tropical fruit. On the palate, it is light- to medium-bodied, crisp, and refreshing, with bright acidity supporting flavors of stone fruit and citrus. Floral perfumes carry through to a clean, lively finish, making it both expressive and easy to enjoy. This vibrant white pairs beautifully with seafood, ceviche, fish tacos, salads, and lightly spiced dishes. Its aromatic character and refreshing acidity also make it an excellent match for Thai, Vietnamese, and other Asian-inspired cuisines, while serving equally well as a refreshing aperitif.

Thieves' price: $11.99

2025 Barricas Malbec Mendoza Argentina

Barricas is produced by Bodega Hinojosa, a third-generation family winery in Argentina's Uco Valley of Mendoza. Sourced from hand-harvested vineyards in Tunuyán and Tupungato, the wines are crafted to highlight varietal character, balance, and drinkability while expressing the fruit-forward style for which Mendoza is known. The 2025 Barricas Malbec displays a vivid violet color and opens with aromas of boysenberry, cherry, violet, and subtle spice. On the palate, it is round and medium-bodied, offering juicy dark berry and red fruit flavors supported by soft tannins and a smooth texture. Friendly and approachable, it finishes with fresh fruit and gentle spice, making it an easy-drinking yet authentic expression of Argentine Malbec. This versatile Malbec pairs beautifully with grilled meats, burgers, sausages, pasta dishes, and aged cheeses. Its ripe fruit and supple texture also make it a great match for empanadas, roasted poultry, and casual backyard barbecue fare.

Thieves' price: $11.99

2025 Giacosa Fratelli Gavi Piedmonte Italy

Giacosa Fratelli is a historic Piedmont producer known for crafting classic wines that express the character of the region's native grape varieties. Their Gavi is made from 100% Cortese grown in the hills of the Gavi appellation, an area widely regarded as one of Italy's premier sources for fresh, mineral-driven white wines. The 2025 Giacosa Fratelli Gavi is a fresh, light-bodied, dry white wine with aromas of apple and white flowers. On the palate, it is crisp and harmonious, combining bright acidity with subtle fruit character and a delicate mineral edge. Elegant and refreshing, it offers a clean finish while maintaining enough texture and body to make it a versatile food wine. This classic Gavi pairs beautifully with seafood, shellfish, grilled fish, and light appetizers. Its freshness and balance also make it an excellent match for crab cakes, charcuterie, salads, and other delicate Mediterranean-inspired dishes.

Thieves' price: $17.99

2023 Delisle Boucard Cabernet Franc Bourgueil, Loire Valley France

Lamé Delisle Boucard is a respected family estate in France's Loire Valley, specializing in Cabernet Franc from the Bourgueil appellation. Known for producing wines that emphasize freshness, elegance, and terroir expression, the estate crafts classic Loire reds that balance fruit, earth, and structure. The 2023 Lamé Delisle Boucard Bourgueil Cabernet Franc is bright and expressive, offering aromas of red berries, sweet potpourri, white pepper, and damp earth. On the palate, it is medium-bodied and refined, with vibrant red fruit flavors, fresh acidity, and moderate tannins that provide structure without heaviness. The wine captures the hallmark freshness and savory complexity that make Loire Valley Cabernet Franc so distinctive. This versatile red pairs beautifully with roasted poultry, lamb, vegetarian dishes, and goat cheese. Its lively acidity and earthy undertones also complement mushroom dishes, herb-roasted vegetables, and simple French bistro fare, making it an exceptionally food-friendly wine..

Thieves' price: $18.99

2023 Bricoleur Pinot Noir Russian River Valley, Sonoma California

Bricoleur Vineyards is a family-owned winery in Sonoma County's Russian River Valley, a region renowned for producing world-class Pinot Noir. The winery focuses on sustainably farmed fruit and wines that highlight balance, elegance, and a strong sense of place. The 2023 Bricoleur Russian River Valley Pinot Noir opens with enticing aromas of Bing cherry, raspberry, and cedar spice. Reflecting the cool growing season, the wine shows remarkable freshness and vibrancy, with bright red fruit flavors, subtle spice notes, silky tannins, and balanced acidity. Elegant and refined, it finishes with energy and finesse while maintaining the richness expected of Russian River Valley Pinot Noir. This Pinot Noir pairs beautifully with roasted poultry, pork tenderloin, veal, wild mushrooms, and salmon. Its combination of bright fruit, earthy undertones, and silky texture also complements mushroom-based dishes and other elegant, seasonal cuisine.

Thieves' price: $39.99

2021 Marco Bonfante Barbaresco Piedmonte Italy

Marco Bonfante is a family-owned winery in Piedmont that focuses on traditional expressions of the region's native grapes. Their Barbaresco DOCG is made from 100% Nebbiolo and aged in oak for two years before release, emphasizing elegance, structure, and the classic character of this renowned appellation. The 2021 Marco Bonfante Barbaresco displays an intense bouquet of violet, truffle, and marzipan, complemented by notes of ripe red berries, plum, spice, and subtle smoke. On the palate, it is refined and structured, with vibrant acidity, firm yet polished tannins, and a velvety texture. The wine balances savory complexity with fresh fruit, leading to a long, persistent finish and excellent aging potential. This classic Nebbiolo pairs beautifully with roasted or braised meats, game dishes, wild boar, and mushroom-based recipes. It is particularly well suited to dishes featuring truffles, rich ragùs, or aged cheeses, where its earthy depth, acidity, and tannic structure can shine.

Thieves' price: $34.99