

2020 S. Osvaldo Pinot Grigio Della Venezia, Italy

Founded by Baron Lajos Babos in the 1930's, the winery was named after Oswald of Northumbria, the Patron Saint of the small hamlet where the winery lies in Loncon di Annone Veneto. The winery was purchased by the Serena family in 2004, where they have continued the love and dedication to the land and its vines that Babos started a half century before. D.O.C. Delle Venezie (Eastern Veneto Region)

Tasting Notes: Lively aromas and flavors of tropical fruits, pear and citrus. Smooth and delicate mouthfeel with balanced acidity and a lingering finish. A fantastic wine to be enjoyed throughout the warmer months of spring and summer.

Try pairing this wine with salads, soft cheese and shellfish.

2020 Emilio Moro "Polverete" Godello Bierzo, Spain

The history of Bodegas Emilio Moro dates back three generations. The grandfather of the third generation of Emilio Moro was born in 1891, and his son, Emilio Moro, was born in 1932. Both were born into a wine growing environment, surrounded by vineyards. They grew up treading grapes in their hometown of Pesquera de Duero in the province of Valladolid. Emilio Moro instilled in his son a love of wine and his son, in turn, passed this on to the third generation, who currently manage the winery.

Polvorete is a wine born to make the wonders of the Godello grape known the world over. A wine full of joy, youth and fun, which is above all easy to enjoy. Straw yellow in color. The nose is subtle and elegant, with notes of the Godello variety, highlighting white flowers. The palate is fresh with balanced acidity.

2018 Judge Palmer Cabernet Sauvignon Sonoma Valley

Emmitt-Scorsone Winegrowers is a partnership between winemakers Palmer Emmitt and Michael Scorsone. At our small artisan winery in northern Sonoma County, we bottle wines under several labels – Judge Palmer, Domenica Amato, and Emmitt-Scorsone. Across the portfolio, our grapes are sourced from small, family-owned vineyards and our wines hand-made with passion and authenticity. Named after Palmer's grandfather, Judge Palmer showcases Cabernet Sauvignon and other varietal wines made in the classic California tradition from premier vineyards in both Napa and Sonoma. The Cabernet for the 2018 edition of this wine was sourced from the Ellis Alden Vineyard in Alexander Valley (70%) and our Estate Vineyard (30%) in Dry Creek Valley. A bright, expansive nose announces this wine packed with warm currant, red licorice and berry compote flavors around a core of loamy earth and subtle spice character.

Complex and structured to last, the palate features silky smooth tannins weaved with firm acidity. Try this wine the next time you throw a steak on the BBQ!
